“Our audience of sophisticated, wealth-driven consumers is indelibly on the hunt for the hottest, most compelling products and services that will foster their luxurious, jet-set lifestyles,” notes Kern. “The Luxe List’ is a forum intended to help consumers find such items more readily, while enlightening and entertaining all of our site visitors – even those who simply want to keep their finger on the pulse of the luxury marketplace.”

“I intend for The Luxe List to resonate and carry great weight with our affluent consumer demographic, as well as the media, to the same extent that The O List serves as a prime shopping guide for Oprah Winfrey’s target market segment,” Kern says. Towards this end, The Luxe List will feature ‘the best of the best’ as it relates to luxury living, with products being featured at all price points - from affordable luxuries to the world’s most expensive gifts and personal items.”
